

On Thursday, October 19, 2017, teachers will be wearing denim to show their support of the American Cancer Society National Denim Day. Denim Day is a day that has been set aside to raise awareness for research and the treatment of cancer. This year students will be allowed to wear jeans and a pink shirt. If they choose not to wear a pink shirt, they must wear their uniform shirts. Jeans, shirts, and all other clothing must follow school uniform dress code and guidelines.

SPECIAL DAYS/EVENTS/ACTIVITIES DRESS CODE: At times during the year, there are events and activities during which the student may not be required to wear the SKDS uniform. Some examples may include concerts, dances, field trips, holiday/sport events, etc. These occurrences will be announced from the school office. (At all other times unless specifically noted, students are required to be in uniform.) On these days/events/activities specific instructions as to the type of appropriate clothing items are sent home. These non-uniform occurrences may not pertain to all grade levels for any given day and/or event. However, the items must adhere to the following guidelines:

TOPS:

- neckline no more than 2 finger widths from the collar bone
- sleeves no less than at the outside edge of the shoulder and no lower than 2 fingers below the armpit
- cannot be see-through
- must fully cover body in all body positions

BOTTOMS:

- must be worn at the natural waistline
- can be no shorter than 2 inches above the kneecap
- cannot be skin tight

GENERAL:

- must contain no wording or illustrations contrary to our mission
- must not promote or advertise any item or activity contrary to our mission
